PRESS STATEMENT 068

Spanish Government calls for end to violence in Syria

2025-07-16

The Government of Spain expresses its concern over the violence of recent days in southern Syria, and calls for its immediate cessation.

These acts cannot go unpunished and accountability and justice for the victims must be ensured.

In view of Israel's military actions in Damascus and other parts of the country, the Government urges all parties to respect the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Syria.

Spain reiterates its support for a peaceful and inclusive political transition in Syria.
