The Syrian Coalition condemns the crime that took place in Istanbul, Turkey on Sunday, August 13 against a Turkish policeman who was killed at the hands of a member of the ISIS terrorist organization.

The Coalition extends its sincere condolences to the family of the policeman as well as the Turkish people and government which has stood by the Syrian people in their struggle against tyranny and terrorism in all its forms.

The Coalition stresses it will continue with the efforts to fight terrorism as it commends all the efforts to eradicate terrorism and dry up its resources, most notably the Assad regime and its allied Iranian terrorist militias.
