Minister Terzi: maximum pressure on Assad to avoid another massacre in Aleppo

2012-07-27

“Everyone must contribute to putting the maximum pressure on Assad in order to avoid another massacre”, commented Minister for Foreign Affairs Giulio Terzi, expressing his deep concern over the “disturbing” news of the government forces’ siege of the city Syrian of Aleppo.

The Italian Cooperation has already launched emergency interventions on the ground on behalf of the weakest segments of the civilian society, especially children, and the Italian government is considering additional humanitarian aid.
