Press Statement

Badr Jamous

Syrian Coalition Secretary General

Istanbul, Turkey

February 26, 2014

The Syrian Coalition extends its deepest appreciation to the people and government of Turkey for all the humanitarian, financial, and relief support they have provided to the Syrian people during these difficult times.

We highly value the outstanding generosity and gracious hospitality the Turkish people have shown to Syrian refugees as well as those living in Turkey outside of refugee camps.

The Syrian Coalition's headquarters remains in Istanbul, and rumours that the Turkish government putting pressure on the Syrian Coalition to move its headquarters to Cairo is completely baseless and untrue.
