The Syrian Coalition condemns the terrorist attack that took place in the Spanish city of Barcelona leaving dozens of people killed and injured.

The Coalition express its full solidarity with the families of the victims as it stresses it is ready to cooperate with the Spanish Government and other countries in the fight against terrorism and the drying up of its sources everywhere in the world.

The Syrian people, with all their components, are fully aware of the enormity of terrorism and the dire consequences of failing to confront and uproot it, especially the terrorist attacks targeting civilians and which are aimed at undermining stability and security.
