

Syrian Journalists Association (SJA) condemns the attack on French magazine Charlie Hebdo

The Syrian Journalists Association (SJA) was shocked of the barbaric attack on the French satirical magazine Charlie Hebdo's office in Paris, Wednesday. 12 people were killed, including 10 journalists and 2 policemen.

SJA condemns this terrorist attack, whoever is responsible for it, and strongly denies any justification of such crime that violates human values and assaults basic principles of all religions.

SJA is expressing its condolences and sharing sympathies with the victims' families and friends. In this traumatic day, SJA would like to remind all parties to respect the press freedom and to ensure that media workers aren't being targeted for any reason.
