Federal Foreign Office on current clashes in Syria

2025-07-14

A Federal Foreign Office Spokesperson issued the following statement today (14 July) on the current clashes in Syria:

The Federal Government is following reports of numerous victims in the current clashes in Suweida with great concern. The Federal Government calls on all sides to exercise restraint and underscores the duty of all parties involved to protect civilians. The hostilities must cease immediately.

The Federal Government urges the Syrian Government to act to de-escalate tensions now. The Syrian Government has a responsibility to work towards a political settlement between the population groups. A reconciliation process, a functioning transitional justice system and an inclusive political process are key in this regard. Germany stands ready to continue to support the people of Syria on this difficult path.
