

2020/2207(INI)

17.11.2020

AMENDMENTS

285 - 454

Draft report
Sven Mikser
(PE657.487v02-00)

Implementation of the Common Security and Defence Policy - annual report 2020
(2020/2207(INI))

Amendment 285

Sven Mikser, Claudiu Manda, Attila Ara-Kovács, Isabel Santos, Juozas Olekas, Nikos Androulakis, Nils Ušakovs, Javi López, Tonino Picula, Elena Yoncheva, Demetris Papadakis, Nacho Sánchez Amor

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 24

Motion for a resolution

24. Welcomes the progress made in EU-NATO cooperation since the Joint Declaration in Warsaw in 2016; commends the progress made in implementing the common set of proposals of December 2017, in particular the intensification of EU-NATO political dialogue at all levels, as well as the structured dialogue on military mobility, the efforts to ensure greater coherence between the respective defence planning processes, and closer cooperation in countering hybrid threats and disinformation campaigns; calls on the EU and NATO to further enhance the mutually reinforcing cooperation and to deepen their Strategic Partnership;

Amendment

24. Welcomes the progress made in EU-NATO cooperation since the Joint Declaration in Warsaw in 2016; commends the progress made in implementing the common set of proposals of December 2017, in particular the intensification of EU-NATO political dialogue at all levels, as well as the structured dialogue on military mobility, the efforts to ensure greater coherence between the respective defence planning processes, and closer cooperation in the field of cyber security and defence, and in countering hybrid threats and disinformation campaigns; calls on the EU and NATO to further enhance the mutually reinforcing cooperation and to deepen their Strategic Partnership;

Or. en

Amendment 286

Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 24

Motion for a resolution

24. Welcomes the progress made in EU-NATO cooperation since the Joint Declaration in Warsaw in 2016; commends the progress made in implementing the common set of proposals of December 2017, in particular the intensification of EU-NATO political dialogue at all levels, as well as the structured dialogue on

Amendment

24. Welcomes the progress made in EU-NATO cooperation since the Joint Declaration in Warsaw in 2016; commends the progress made in implementing the common set of proposals of December 2017, in particular the intensification of EU-NATO political dialogue at all levels, as well as the structured dialogue on military mobility, the efforts to ensure greater coherence between the respective defence planning processes, and closer cooperation in countering hybrid threats and disinformation campaigns; calls on the EU and NATO to further enhance the mutually reinforcing cooperation and to deepen their Strategic Partnership;

military mobility, the efforts to ensure greater coherence between the respective defence planning processes, and closer cooperation in countering hybrid threats and disinformation campaigns; calls on the EU and NATO to further enhance the mutually reinforcing cooperation, including between missions and operations, and to deepen their Strategic Partnership;

Or. en

Amendment 287
Traian Băsescu

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 24 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

24a. Stresses the importance of further strengthening the EU-NATO partnership in the field of military mobility; calls on the EU and NATO in this regard to pinpoint and remedy any gaps and differences in the framework of their relations in the field of military mobility, such as those relating to infrastructure, terminology, legal aspects and the aims of implementing of military mobility; lays special emphasis on the need to harmonise the conditions and rules for the transit of NATO troops through Member States and to eliminate customs barriers and regulatory procedures liable to delay them at border control points in the event of their intervening on the territory of an EU Member State;

Or. ro

Amendment 288
Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Bart Groothuis

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 24 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

24a. Underlines the importance of military mobility; insists on the importance for military mobility projects to get suitable budget in the next MFF; stresses the complementarity of EU-NATO cooperation to improve military mobility across the European Union; welcomes the fact that the military mobility project is part of PESCO;

Or. en

Amendment 289

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko, Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 24 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

24a. Welcomes in this regard Operation Atlantic Resolve and NATO's Enhanced Forward Presence on the European continent and recognises the importance of NATO troops in the effort to deter further Russian aggression and provide crucial support in the event of a conflict;

Or. en

Amendment 290

Alexandr Vondra, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko, Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 24 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

24b. Acknowledges that close cooperation should also take place with third countries and through the command and planning structures of NATO; such cooperation will provide vital capabilities, such as strategic lift, essential to operations in the European periphery;

Or. en

Amendment 291
Emmanuel Maurel

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of EU defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

deleted

Or. fr

Amendment 292
Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of EU

25. Highlights that NATO is responsible for much of the instability in Europe’s neighbouring countries, in particular the fallout from the illegal war of aggression against Libya that has resulted in the collapse of the Libyan defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

state, and the return of slavery for the first time in 100 years, the proliferation of armed militias, many armed and backed by NATO during the bombing and regime change war, that have moved into many countries on Libya's borders, and which have carried out actions tantamount to war crimes in the city of Sirte for example; notes that NATO has repeatedly violated international law, and is not a force for peace or stability in the world;

Or. en

Amendment 293
Arnaud Danjean

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the 'single set of forces' principle, the development of EU defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

Amendment

25. Recalls that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation as explicitly recognised in the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union; believes that EU-NATO cooperation should be complementary and takes full account of each of the two institution's specific features and roles; notes with concerns that some divergences have clearly undermined the solidarity of the Alliance after Turkish actions in Eastern Mediterranean; recalls that, following the 'single set of forces' principle, the development of EU defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

Or. en

Amendment 294
Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko, Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of EU defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

Amendment

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; acknowledges that CSDP activities are small-scale operations within the European periphery and have limited manpower and objectives and therefore recognises that the EU cannot replicate or replace the command and defence planning structures of NATO; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of EU defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

Or. en

Amendment 295
Klemen Grošelj, Bart Groothuis, Urmas Paet, Nathalie Loiseau, Petras Auštrevičius

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of EU defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

Amendment

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of EU defence capabilities does not pose a competitive threat to the Alliance and will also benefit the overall capabilities of the EU and the Alliance;

Or. en

Amendment 296

Hannah Neumann

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of EU defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

Amendment

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of defence capabilities for military CSDP will also benefit the Alliance as regards those countries which are members in both organisations;

Or. en

Amendment 297

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution

25. Highlights that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of EU defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

Amendment

25. Recalls that NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defence for those Member States which are also members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation; recalls that, following the ‘single set of forces’ principle, the development of EU defence capabilities will also benefit the Alliance;

Or. en

Amendment 298

Traian Băsescu

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 25 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

25a. Stresses the need for EU-NATO cooperation with a view to addressing, jointly and efficiently, maritime security threats such as cross-border and organised crime, including organised crime networks that facilitate illegal migration, arms and drug trafficking, smuggling and maritime piracy;

Or. ro

Amendment 299
Kinga Gál

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 25 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

25a. Notes that with a more effective security and defence cooperation, the EU could take up a bigger part in ensuring its own security and step up against challenges such as the fight against terrorism;

Or. en

Amendment 300
Urmas Paet, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Nathalie Loiseau

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 25 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

25a. Highlights the importance of organising and executing joint training and exercises between European armed forces, as well as EU-NATO parallel and coordinated exercises;

Amendment 301

Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 26

Motion for a resolution

26. Strongly supports the Strategic Partnership between the EU and the UN in crisis management and civilian, police and military peacekeeping; welcomes the progress achieved in the implementation of the eight jointly identified and agreed 2019-2021 EU-UN priorities on peace operations and crisis management; notes that some progress has been achieved in enhancing cooperation between missions and operations in the field, on the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) agenda feeding into the implementation of the EU Action Plan on Women, Peace and Security, as well as in relation to conflict prevention and on political and strategic levels; calls on the EU and the UN to further explore opportunities for closer cooperation, especially on joint theatres of operation, in areas including mission transition planning, support arrangements in the field, information exchange outside of mission areas and contingency planning in view of COVID-19, as well as in the field of climate and defence;

Amendment

26. Notes the Strategic Partnership between the EU and the UN in crisis management and civilian, police and military peacekeeping; calls on the EU and the UN to further explore opportunities for closer cooperation, especially in terms of ensuring adherence to international law and the UN Charter;

Amendment 302

Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 26

Motion for a resolution

26. Strongly supports the Strategic Partnership between the EU and the UN in crisis management and civilian, police and military peacekeeping; welcomes the progress achieved in the implementation of the eight jointly identified and agreed 2019-2021 EU-UN priorities on peace operations and crisis management; notes that some progress has been achieved in enhancing cooperation between missions and operations in the field, on the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) agenda feeding into the implementation of the EU Action Plan on Women, Peace and Security, as well as in relation to conflict prevention and on political and strategic levels; calls on the EU and the UN to further explore opportunities for closer cooperation, especially on joint theatres of operation, in areas including mission transition planning, support arrangements in the field, information exchange outside of mission areas and contingency planning in view of COVID-19, as well as in the field of climate and defence;

Amendment

26. Notes the Strategic Partnership between the EU and the UN in crisis management and civilian, police and military peacekeeping; notes the progress achieved in the implementation of the eight jointly identified and agreed 2019-2021 EU-UN priorities on peace operations and crisis management; notes that some progress has been achieved in enhancing cooperation between missions and operations in the field, on the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) agenda feeding into the implementation of the EU Action Plan on Women, Peace and Security, as well as in relation to conflict prevention and on political and strategic levels;

Or. en

Amendment 303

Hannah Neumann

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 26

Motion for a resolution

26. Strongly supports the Strategic Partnership between the EU and the UN in crisis management and civilian, police and military peacekeeping; welcomes the progress achieved in the implementation of the eight jointly identified and agreed 2019-2021 EU-UN priorities on peace operations and crisis management; notes

Amendment

26. Strongly supports the Strategic Partnership between the EU and the UN in crisis management and civilian, police and military peacekeeping; welcomes the progress achieved in the implementation of the eight jointly identified and agreed 2019-2021 EU-UN priorities on peace operations and crisis management; urges that some progress has been achieved in enhancing cooperation between missions and operations in the field, on the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) agenda feeding into the implementation of the EU Action Plan on Women, Peace and Security, as well as in relation to conflict prevention and on political and strategic levels; calls on the EU and the UN to further explore opportunities for closer cooperation, especially on joint theatres of operation, in areas including mission transition planning, support arrangements in the field, information exchange outside of mission areas and contingency planning in view of COVID-19, as well as in the field of climate and defence;

the Member States to contribute more to UN peacekeeping and calls on EU institutions to assist in this respect; notes that some progress has been achieved in enhancing cooperation between missions and operations in the field, on the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) agenda feeding into the implementation of the EU Action Plan on Women, Peace and Security, as well as in relation to conflict prevention and on political and strategic levels; calls on the EU and the UN to further explore opportunities for closer cooperation, especially on joint theatres f operation, in areas including mission transition planning, support arrangements in the field, information exchange outside of mission areas and contingency planning in view of COVID-19, as well as in the field of climate and defence;

Or. en

Amendment 304

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 26 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

26a. Takes note that the UK will withdraw from the EU CSDP missions and operations by the end of the transition period on 31 December 2020; stresses that a possible participation of the UK to CSDP missions and operations would require a framework agreement between the EU and the UK; encourages the UK to participate in EU crisis management operations, in defence capabilities development, in the relevant Union agencies, as well as in projects under Permanent Structured Cooperation (PESCO); stresses on a more general matter that such participation should be subject to stringent conditions, through the signing of a framework agreement respecting the decision making autonomy of the EU as well as the sovereignty of the UK, the principle of balanced rights and obligations and based on effective reciprocity; underlines that such participation of the UK as a third country should include a fair and appropriate financial contribution; recalls that the UK has made the sovereign choice of becoming a third state, which has consequences on the nature and the intensity of such a partnership;

Or. en

Amendment 305

Urmas Paet, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Bart Groothuis, Javier Nart, Nathalie Loiseau

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 26 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

26a. Considers it essential to maintain strong, close and special defence and security cooperation between the EU and the United Kingdom as both the EU and United Kingdom share the same strategic environment and the same threats to their peace and security;

Or. en

Amendment 306

Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27. Calls for a more systematic

deleted

implementation of UNSCR 1325 on Women, Peace and Security (WPS) twenty years after its adoption, and for a strengthening of the EU's WPS agenda; calls for meaningful gender mainstreaming in the formulation of the EU CSDP, notably via a better gender balance in the personnel and leadership of CSDP missions and operations and specific training of the personnel deployed;

Or. en

Amendment 307
Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27. Calls for a more systematic implementation of UNSCR 1325 on Women, Peace and Security (WPS) twenty years after its adoption, and for a strengthening of the EU's WPS agenda; calls for meaningful gender mainstreaming in the formulation of the EU CSDP, notably via a better gender balance in the personnel and leadership of CSDP missions and operations and specific training of the personnel deployed; deleted

Or. en

Amendment 308
Hannah Neumann
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27

Motion for a resolution

27. Calls for a more systematic implementation of UNSCR 1325 on Women, Peace and Security (WPS) twenty years after its adoption, and for a strengthening of the EU's WPS agenda; calls for meaningful gender mainstreaming in the formulation of the EU CSDP, notably via a better gender balance in the personnel and leadership of CSDP missions and operations and specific training of the personnel deployed;

Amendment

27. Calls for a more systematic implementation of UNSCR 1325 on Women, Peace and Security (WPS) twenty years after its adoption, and for a strengthening of the EU's WPS agenda;

Or. en

Amendment 309

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27

Motion for a resolution

27. Calls for a more systematic implementation of UNSCR 1325 on Women, Peace and Security (WPS) twenty years after its adoption, and for a strengthening of the EU's WPS agenda; calls for meaningful gender mainstreaming in the formulation of the EU CSDP, notably via a better gender balance in the personnel and leadership of CSDP missions and operations and specific training of the personnel deployed;

Amendment

27. Calls for a more systematic implementation of UNSCR 1325 on Women, Peace and Security (WPS) twenty years after its adoption, and for a strengthening of the EU's WPS agenda; calls for meaningful gender mainstreaming that ensures the primacy of competence and qualifications in the formulation of the EU CSDP, notably via a better gender balance in the personnel and leadership of CSDP missions and operations and specific training of the personnel deployed;

Or. en

Amendment 310

Fabio Massimo Castaldo

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 27 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27a. Recommends the continuation of sustained relations with the African Union in all the four areas set out at the fifth AU-EU Summit in November 2017, including strengthening resilience, peace, security and governance; suggests the maintenance of adequate support to the AU efforts towards the operationalisation of the African Peace and Security Architecture in full respect of the AU will to provide “African solutions to African problems”; commends the positive results achieved so far by AU-led Peace Support Operations and CSDP missions and operations on the continent; urges the Member States to coordinate their national activities in areas where CSDP missions are in place at a Union level in order to guarantee consistency of action;

Or. en

Amendment 311

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 27 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27a. Further calls upon the EU to keep its commitments in the Fourth EU-African Summit to support economic and political stability and to further support the capabilities of the African Standby Force; acknowledges that closer cooperation with existing regional forces such as the African Union, G5 Sahel Force and Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) as well as the US, are essential to successful operations in Africa;

Amendment 312
Hannah Neumann
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27a. Calls for an implementation of UNSCR 2250 on Youth, Peace and Security (YPS) and meaningful integration on youth and their perspectives in the conflict analyses which underpins the support provided by the CSDP missions and operations; calls for EU measures to enhance opportunities for meaningful participation of young people in maintaining and promoting peace and security;

Amendment 313
Željana Zovko

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27a. Reminds that the defensive cooperation is one of the pillars of transatlantic cooperation and remains paramount for mutual security and trade interests of the EU and the US, as well as for allied and partner countries, and therefore reiterates the need for stronger relations;

Amendment 314
Lukas Mandl

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27a. Reaffirms that, despite Brexit, the United Kingdom remains a close strategic partner of the EU and its Member States and therefore reiterates its call to seek the closest possible security partnership with the UK;

Or. en

Amendment 315
Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27a. Stresses the persistent deterioration of the Union's security environment where multiple threats affect or have the potential to affect the security of the European Union, its Member States and its citizens; notes that these threats take different form, such as armed conflicts and vulnerable States on the European continent as well as in its immediate and its extended neighbourhood, terrorism, hybrid threats and warfare (cyberattacks, CBRN threats, foreign interference and disinformation targeting the EU and its Member States, etc.), the weakening of disarmament efforts and international arms control regimes, but also include threats to critical natural resources, energy insecurity and climate change;

Or. en

Amendment 316
Željana Zovko

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27b. Notes the increasing cooperation of the so-called “Quad” in the Indo-Pacific and underlines the need for the EU and its Members States to further upgrade their strategic partnership with like-minded non-NATO partners such as among others Australia, India and Japan;

Or. en

Amendment 317
Lukas Mandl

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27b. Underlines the need for the EU and its Members States to further upgrade their strategic partnerships with like-minded non-NATO countries such as, inter alia, Australia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Israel, Japan, Korea, Kosovo and Serbia;

Or. en

Amendment 318
Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko, Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27b. Encourages Member States to continue to work with ASEAN countries in all aspects already agreed upon, further stresses the need to cooperate on economic manners and combatting terrorism;

Or. en

Amendment 319

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko, Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27 c (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27c. Recognises the growing political, economic, environmental, security and strategic value of the Arctic Circle; urges the Member States to continue cooperation with the Arctic Council on all issues of EU interest and to form a comprehensive strategy for the region;

Or. en

Amendment 320

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko, Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 27 d (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27d. Calls for the EU to address the consistent and growing threats to the protection and preservation of cultural heritage and clamp down on the smuggling of cultural artefacts, especially in conflict zones; notes that depriving societies of their cultural heritage and historical roots makes them more vulnerable to radicalisation and more susceptible to global jihadist ideologies; calls for the EU to develop a broad strategy to counteract such threats;

Or. en

Amendment 321

Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 28

Motion for a resolution

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens;

Amendment

28. Is concerned that international law and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges from many at the decision making level in Europe who are fixated on the militarisation of the union and stoking old conflicts instead of working to ensure internal cohesion for the EU; notes with concern that some actors are using the COVID-19 pandemic to amplify global fragilities and tensions, and in particular that there are some who are taking an excessively aggressive stance towards our neighbours to the East such as Russia and China; calls on member states to work together to re-evaluate our collective foreign policy direction in light of what are the most pressing concerns facing us on a global level, in particular global health crises, global inequality, and climate systems breakdown; stresses that the scale and range of challenges we face as a species requires us to engage in much increased international cooperation, assistance and solidarity and the necessary redirection of resources away from militarism and towards people;

Amendment 322
Dragoş Tudorache

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 28

Motion for a resolution

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens;

Amendment

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens; underlines that a more cohesive foreign policy is a prerequisite for a stronger role on the international scene for the EU and calls on Member States to switch to qualified majority voting, at least in matter related to human rights and implementing sanctions;

Amendment 323
Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Bart Groothuis

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 28

Motion for a resolution

28. Is concerned that the rules-based

Amendment

28. Is concerned that some global international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens; actors and an increasing number of regional actors are deliberately circumventing or attempting to destroy the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a Union that is less dependent on the rest of the world, more protecting and more autonomous, and for a stronger role for the European Union and more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens;

Or. en

Amendment 324 Nicolae Ștefănuță

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 28

Motion for a resolution

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects

Amendment

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order, multilateralism and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens; underlines the

its citizens;

European Union's commitment to effective multilateralism, with the United Nations at its core, as a central element of the EU's external policy;

Or. en

Amendment 325
Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 28

Motion for a resolution

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens;

Amendment

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; notes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens;

Or. en

Amendment 326
Klemen Grošelj, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Petras Auštrevičius

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 28

Motion for a resolution

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom,

Amendment

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order, multilateralism and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens;

freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed new global fragilities and tensions and amplified existing ones; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens;

Or. en

Amendment 327
Emmanuel Maurel

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 28

Motion for a resolution

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens;

Amendment

28. Is concerned that the rules-based international order and the values of sustainable peace, prosperity and freedom, which correspond to the foundations on which the European Union is built, are facing challenges; notes that the COVID-19 pandemic has revealed and amplified existing global fragilities and tensions; stresses that the pandemic has strengthened public support for a stronger role for the European Union and for more European unity, solidarity and resilience; welcomes the Council's conclusions of June 2020 advocating a strong and independent European Union that promotes peace and security and protects its citizens;

Or. fr

Amendment 328
Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of public services during the COVID-19 pandemic; emphasises that further investment in civilian transport systems and public health systems is of the highest importance and must be top priority for the union going forward to ensure the EU's preparedness for future health crises;

Or. en

Amendment 329
Traian Băsescu

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness; stresses the need to increase the capacity of EU military forces to provide Member State health systems with mobile field hospitals that can be quickly relocated and erected wherever they are needed in the EU; also considers that in order to effectively address health crises it is essential to prepare Member States' military medical corps for participation and rapid integration into public health systems;

Or. ro

Amendment 330

Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Klemen Grošelj, Nathalie Loiseau, Dragoș Tudorache

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the

Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; insists that similar assistance and solidarity in times of pandemics and similar crisis should be extended to the partner countries in the immediate EU neighbourhood, among other; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Or. en

Amendment 331

Bart Groothuis, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Urmas Paet, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness; stresses the need to intensify the monitoring and protection of vital and critical infrastructure, especially on undersea optic fibre internet cables;

Or. en

Amendment 332

Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Juozas Olekas, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; points out that development of military mobility is beneficial in management of civilian crises; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Or. en

Amendment 333
Fabio Massimo Castaldo

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, which remains the primary tool that the Union should use while facing emergencies, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Or. en

Amendment 334
Urmas Paet, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Bart Groothuis, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; considers it necessary to move forward and to increase military mobility; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Or. en

Amendment 335

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with

Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to facilitate full military mobility throughout Europe to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Or. en

Amendment 336

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Bart Groothuis

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the need to take stock of the lessons learned in order to reinforce mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; insists on the need to set up European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Amendment 337Klemen Grošelj, Javier Nart, Nathalie Loiseau, Urmas Paet, Petras Auštrevičius*Motion for a resolution*Paragraph 29Motion for a resolution*

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness and its necessary capabilities;

Amendment 338Charlie Weimers*Motion for a resolution*Paragraph 29Motion for a resolution*

29. Underlines the important role of the

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Or. en

Amendment 339

Hannah Neumann

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces in some Member States during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Or. en

Amendment 340

Sven Mikser, Claudiu Manda, Attila Ara-Kovács, Isabel Santos, Juozas Olekas, Nikos Androulakis, Nils Ušakovs, Javi López, Tonino Picula, Elena Yoncheva, Costas Mavrides, Demetris Papadakis, Nacho Sánchez Amor

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 29

Motion for a resolution

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civil support operations, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Amendment

29. Underlines the important role of the armed forces during the COVID-19 pandemic and welcomes military assistance to civilian authorities, notably for the deployment of field hospitals, patient transport, and equipment delivery and distribution; considers that this valuable contribution has shown the importance of the Member States' military assets and capabilities in support of the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, as well as for humanitarian assistance purposes; reiterates the importance of mutual assistance and solidarity, in line with Article 42(7) TEU and Article 222 TFEU; encourages the setting up of European mechanisms aimed at facilitating the cross-border use of military logistical capabilities to face such emergencies, in order to allow for greater coordination, synergy, solidarity and support; stresses the need to increase the EU's CBRN preparedness;

Or. en

Amendment 341
Traian Băsescu

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

29a. Stresses the need to bolster the EU's status as a regional maritime security provider and to strengthen the resilience of the EU and its Member States to crisis situations in their territorial waters; believes it necessary to harmonise the rules on intervention and equipment standards and to reinforce the training of Member State staff in coordinated and unified activities within the framework of operations at European/international level and in the event of maritime crises and events/incidents;

Or. ro

Amendment 342
Lukas Mandl

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

29a. Believes that the Covid-19 pandemic has demonstrated the EU's vulnerability in the face of public health emergencies as well as its dependence on third countries and therefore underlines the need to intensify the EU's efforts to achieve strategic autonomy;

Or. en

Amendment 343

Urmas Paet, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Bart Groothuis, Javier Nart, Nathalie Loiseau

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 29 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

29a. Considers it important to ensure a better link between internal and external aspects of EU policies to ensure that EU policies act towards common foreign and security policy goals, including the EU energy policy;

Or. en

Amendment 344

Traian Băsescu

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 29 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

29b. Considers it essential to protect all the European Union's weak points in order to ensure the effective common defence of European citizens; notes with concern the increasing militarisation of the Crimean peninsula and the attempts by the Russian Federation to destabilise the Black Sea region, with this situation having led to the recognition, at the NATO Summit in Wales in 2014, of the vulnerability of the eastern flank of the North Atlantic Alliance; calls on the EU to recognise the vulnerability of Eastern European Member States as a means of strengthening European defence, and to develop, together with NATO, a comprehensive strategy for securing and defending the eastern flank;

Or. ro

Amendment 345
Željana Zovko

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

29a. Commends the European External Action Service and the StratCom East department on their efforts to identify and suppress disinformation campaigns and asks for further budgetary and political support in order to effectively counter misinformation and better inform about the EU's actions and policies;

Or. en

Amendment 346
Željana Zovko

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 29 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

29b. Underlines the urgent need to strengthen CSDP missions as well as the EU's overall strategic planning and communication policy, in order to increase the visibility of the EU's actions; deems that this is crucial to contain and counter third countries influences that have opposing and damaging long-term interests for the regions;

Or. en

Amendment 347
Bart Groothuis, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; Calls on the EU to become the frontrunner of advocating for a collective self-defence and countermeasures cooperation framework against hybrid threats, eventually with a global coalition of liberal democracies, in the case a countermeasure by a democratic state being insufficient but an appeal to collective military self-defence would be too far reaching; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up funding for its strategic communication and its Stratcom Task Forces and to address the growing and malign foreign interference and disinformation campaigns which threatens its democratic system; Calls on the EU to reverse the trend that nearly all scientists are working on new deep fakes-technology and only a handful on detection of malicious disinformation campaigns;

Or. en

Amendment 348

Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Klemen Grošelj, Bart Groothuis, Dragoș Tudorache, Christophe Grudler

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system; underlines the importance to cooperate and assist the partner countries, particularly in the immediate neighbourhood of the EU, in their efforts to address and counter the malign foreign interference, notably disinformation and propaganda, as in many cases such acts seek to divert these countries from the path of pro-democratic reforms and attack the European values and ideals;

Or. en

Amendment 349

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Bart Groothuis

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats,

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats,

including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system; by implementing the relevant existing norms and by adopting, where necessary, the relevant legal provisions; insists on the need to provide sufficient personnel and funding to all EU services dealing with foreign interference and disinformation in order to better identify, investigate and counter attempts to interfere in EU democratic processes or EU actions abroad;

Or. en

Amendment 350
Nicolae Ștefănuță

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and propaganda both inside and outside the Union's borders, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system; secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference, coming mainly from Russia and China, which threatens its democratic system; stresses the need for the Member States to create strong national action plans to fight disinformation and propaganda, together with fact-checkers, researchers, start-ups and civil society organisations;

Or. en

Amendment 351

Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Juozas Olekas, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems including secure communication channels; calls for increased funding for the East StratCom Task Force; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication, debunk disinformation and to address and deter the growing malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system; stresses the importance of the European Parliament Special Committee on Foreign Interference in all Democratic Processes in the European Union, including Disinformation;

Or. en

Amendment 352

Lukas Mandl

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system; underlines the important role of the East StratCom TaskForce and calls for additional budgetary and political support to further improve its ability to counter disinformation and inform about the EU's actions and policies;

Or. en

Amendment 353

Emmanouil Fragkos, Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference, such as Turkey's, which threatens our sovereignty, democratic system and citizens;

Or. en

Amendment 354
Emmanuel Maurel

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address any foreign interference; threatens its democratic system;

Or. fr

Amendment 355

Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation, and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

Or. en

Amendment 356

David McAllister

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 30

Motion for a resolution

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation,

Amendment

30. Welcomes the set of priorities and guidelines adopted for EU cooperation in the field of countering hybrid threats and enhancing resilience to these threats, including the fight against disinformation,

and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to step up its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

and the setting up of a Rapid Alert System to facilitate cooperation with international partners such as the G7 and NATO; invites the EU and its Member States to develop and strengthen the security of its information and communication systems, including secure communication channels; underlines the importance and the urgency for the EU to invest in its strategic communication and to address the growing and malign foreign interference which threatens its democratic system;

Or. en

Amendment 357

David Lega

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 30 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

30a. In this regard, urges the European External Action Service (EEAS) to further strengthen its capabilities to counter disinformation, hybrid warfare, propaganda and espionage, including the creation of dedicated StratCom Task Forces focused on the disinformation emanating from a) China and b) the Middle East, particularly Iran, and imposing costs on countries and non-state actors that deliberately spread disinformation to divide and harm the EU and its Member States, as well as partners and neighbours covered by the ENP; points out that not only Russia and China, but also Iran conducts extensive intelligence operations in Europe;

Or. en

Amendment 358

Urmas Paet, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Bart Groothuis, Javier Nart, Nathalie

Loiseau

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 30 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

30a. Considers that the EU must introduce a more robust strategy to counter aggressive disinformation interference campaigns and impose costs on countries that try to divide the EU and harm its interests; stresses the need to review the mandate of EEAS Strategic Communications team to address foreign interference by emerging actors like China;

Or. en

Amendment 359

Bart Groothuis, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 31

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; stresses the need to improve the visa restriction system as part of the EU sanction mechanism, by making use of biometric visa procedures in order to restrict entities engaged in hybrid warfare to travel to the EU under a false identity; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace and therefore urges all EU intelligence agencies to substantially increase mutual coordination and cooperation, analogue to the current counter-terrorism cooperation, extended to the fields of cyber and the technical developments of foreign adversaries; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

(ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

Or. en

Amendment 360

Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Juozas Olekas, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 31

Motion for a resolution

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in

Amendment

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents; cyberspace; welcomes good progress achieved by PESCO Cyber Rapid Response Team project in this regard; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

Or. en

Amendment 361
Fabio Massimo Castaldo

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 31

Motion for a resolution

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for

Amendment

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents, as well as closer malicious cyber incidents;

cooperation with like-minded international organisations and countries;

Or. en

Amendment 362
Emmanuel Maurel

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 31

Motion for a resolution

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

Amendment

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA); calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

Or. fr

Amendment 363
Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 31

Motion for a resolution

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

Amendment

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the urgency to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for reinforcing the support to the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

Or. en

Amendment 364
Emmanouil Fragkos, Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 31

Motion for a resolution

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external

Amendment

31. Welcomes the adoption by the Council of a decision that, for the first time, allows the EU to impose targeted restrictive measures to deter and respond to cyber-attacks which constitute an external threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

threat to the EU or its Member States, including cyber-attacks against third States or international organisations, and to impose sanctions on persons or entities responsible for cyber-attacks; highlights the need to further integrate cyber aspects into the EU's crisis management systems; underlines that closer cooperation in preventing and countering cyber-attacks is essential in these times of particular vulnerability in order to advance international security and stability in cyberspace; calls for decisively upgrading the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

Or. en

Amendment 365

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 31 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

31a. Is particularly worried by continuous detection of small scale cyberattacks or intrusions into critical infrastructure systems that remain dormant but that may have high impact; urges Member States to implement redundancies into their critical infrastructure systems, such as electric generation and strategic communications, at all levels; calls for reinforcing the support from the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and for strong coordination with the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in this respect; calls for increased EU coordination as regards establishing collective attribution for malicious cyber incidents;

Or. en

Amendment 366
Željana Zovko

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 31 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

31a. Points to the importance of global maritime flows and reiterates the need to proceed with a coherent strategy, involving the EU's global partners, to combat illegal maritime non-state actors, such as pirates, human and arms traffickers, terrorists and criminal syndicates; furthermore expresses concern about the rise of maritime disputes regarding maritime borders and the delineation of Exclusive Economic Zones (EEZ) and calls upon all parties involved in maritime conflicts to seek mediation by the UN and comply with any ruling of it;

Or. en

Amendment 367
Sven Mikser, Claudiu Manda, Attila Ara-Kovács, Isabel Santos, Juozas Olekas, Nikos Androulakis, Nils Ušakovs, Javi López, Tonino Picula, Raphaël Glucksmann, Kati Piri, Costas Mavrides, Demetris Papadakis, Nacho Sánchez Amor

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 31 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

31a. Underlines that the EU needs to become more resilient to foreign interference; acknowledges the important work conducted under the EUvsDisinfo project; underlines the urgent need for the EU to equip itself with robust means to proactively counteract propaganda, fake news and disinformation campaigns against it coming from third States and non-state actors;

Or. en

Amendment 368

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko, Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 31 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

31a. Recognises the growing importance of cyber and automated intelligence capabilities, stresses that these provide threats to all the Member States and EU institutions, urges all EU institutions and Member States to continue to improve upon their cyber and automated technologies, further encourages cooperation on these technological advances;

Or. en

Amendment 369

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko, Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 31 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

31b. Underlines the importance of achieving quantum computing capabilities and stresses the need to enhance EU-US cooperation in this area to ensure that quantum computing is first realised among partners sharing warm relations and supporting objectives;

Or. en

Amendment 370

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 31 c (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

31c. Notes the growing importance of space security and satellites, stresses the importance of the European Union Satellite Centre and commissions the agency to analyse and provide a report regarding the safety and/or vulnerabilities of the EU and Member State satellites to space debris, cyberattack and direct missile attack;

Or. en

Amendment 371

Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 32

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

32. Underlines that adequate levels of financial resources, personnel and assets are essential in order to ensure that the Union has the strength and the ability to promote peace and security within its borders and in the world;

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 372

Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 32

Motion for a resolution

32. Underlines that adequate levels of financial resources, personnel and assets are essential in order to ensure that the Union has the strength and the ability to promote peace and security within its borders and in the world;

Amendment

32. Underlines that peace is best promoted through dialogue, cooperation, assistance and diplomacy; stresses that based on the EU's record it is clear that military intervention does not promote peace; stresses the importance of introspection for the EU and the recognition that the idea of Europe policing the world is a white supremacist one that is at odds with international law and the principal of non-intervention;

Or. en

Amendment 373

Fabio Massimo Castaldo

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 32

Motion for a resolution

32. Underlines that adequate levels of financial resources, personnel and assets are essential in order to ensure that the Union has the strength and the ability to promote peace and security within its borders and in the world;

Amendment

32. Underlines that adequate levels of financial resources, personnel and assets are essential in order to ensure that the Union has the strength and the ability to promote peace and security within its borders and in the world; calls on the Member States to show the political will to match the European ambitions in the field of defence and meet their commitments;

Or. en

Amendment 374

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Bart Groothuis

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 32

Motion for a resolution

32. Underlines that adequate levels of financial resources, personnel and assets are essential in order to ensure that the Union has the strength and the ability to promote peace and security within its borders and in the world;

Amendment

32. Underlines that adequate levels of financial resources, personnel and assets are essential in order to ensure that the Union has the strength and the ability to promote peace and security within its borders and in its close and extended neighbourhood;

Or. en

Amendment 375
Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 33

Motion for a resolution

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for defence initiatives; urges the Council to maintain an ambitious budget for the European Defence Fund and for military mobility at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for the Union to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action and defence;

Amendment

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 376
Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 33

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for defence initiatives; urges the Council to maintain an ambitious budget for the European Defence Fund and for military mobility at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for the Union to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action and defence;

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 377
Nicolae Ștefănuță

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 33

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for defence initiatives; urges the Council to maintain an ambitious budget for the European Defence Fund and for military mobility at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for the Union to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for security and defence initiatives; urges the Council to maintain an ambitious budget for the European Defence Fund (both Research and non-Research), aimed to strengthen collaborative actions and cross-border cooperation throughout the Union and for military mobility in order to help Member States to act faster and more effectively in the context of a future possible conflict, can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action and defence;

including by funding dual use transport infrastructure and simplifying diplomatic clearances and customs rules, at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for the Union to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action and defence;

Or. en

Amendment 378

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 33

Motion for a resolution

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for defence initiatives; urges the Council to maintain an ambitious budget for the European Defence Fund and for military mobility at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for the Union to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action and defence;

Amendment

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for defence initiatives; urges the Council to restore an ambitious budget for the European Defence Fund and for military mobility at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for the Union to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action and defence; calls on the Council to adopt Parliament's position on Article 5 of the future EDF regulation; stresses the need to finalise the EDF without delay; stresses the importance of maintaining Parliament's position regarding the amount of the EDF;

Or. en

Amendment 379

Bart Groothuis, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 33

Motion for a resolution

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for defence initiatives; urges the Council to maintain an ambitious budget for the European Defence Fund and for military mobility at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for the Union to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action and defence;

Amendment

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for defence initiatives; calls on the EU to build its own ballistic missiles defence system, as well as an integrated and layered strategic air defence system, also designed to counter hypersonic missiles; urges the Council to maintain an ambitious budget for the European Defence Fund and for military mobility at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for the Union to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action and defence;

Or. en

Amendment 380

Hannah Neumann

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 33

Motion for a resolution

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for defence initiatives; urges the Council to maintain an ambitious budget for the European

Amendment

33. Regrets the European Council's current lack of ambition in the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) for foreign policy and security initiatives; urges the Council to maintain an ambitious budget

Defence Fund and for military mobility at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for the Union to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action and defence;

for CFSP and NDICI at the level initially proposed by the Commission and adopted by Parliament at first reading; recalls that European citizens have clearly and consistently called for more cooperation on security and to step up its role in delivering sustainable stability and security, and this can only be achieved with the necessary financial means and an ambitious MFF in the area of external action;

Or. en

Amendment 381
Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 34

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

34. Warns of the danger of a lack of ambition to fund European defence in the MFF, combined with significant and uncoordinated cuts in national defence budgets as a result of the COVID-19 crisis; stresses the need for Member States to allocate the necessary financial resources at national level in order to give the Union the ability to operate as a global actor for peace; shares the assessment of the European Court of Auditors that ‘the EU Member States are far from having the military capabilities they need to match the EU military level of ambition’;

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 382
Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 34

Motion for a resolution

34. Warns of the danger of a lack of ambition to fund European defence in the MFF, combined with significant and uncoordinated cuts in national defence budgets as a result of the COVID-19 crisis; stresses the need for Member States to allocate the necessary financial resources at national level in order to give the Union the ability to operate as a global actor for peace; shares the assessment of the European Court of Auditors that ‘the EU Member States are far from having the military capabilities they need to match the EU military level of ambition’;

Amendment

34. Welcomes any cuts in national defence budgets as a result of the COVID-19 crisis;

Or. en

Amendment 383

Hannah Neumann

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 34

Motion for a resolution

34. Warns of the danger of a lack of ambition to fund European defence in the MFF, combined with significant and uncoordinated cuts in national defence budgets as a result of the COVID-19 crisis; stresses the need for Member States to allocate the necessary financial resources at national level in order to give the Union the ability to operate as a global actor for peace; shares the assessment of the European Court of Auditors that ‘the EU Member States are far from having the military capabilities they need to match the EU military level of ambition’;

Amendment

34. Stresses the need for Member States to allocate the necessary financial resources at national level in order to give the Union the ability to operate as a global actor for peace; shares the assessment of the European Court of Auditors that ‘the EU Member States are far from having the military capabilities they need to match the EU military level of ambition’;

Or. en

Amendment 384

Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 34

Motion for a resolution

34. Warns of the danger of a lack of ambition to fund European defence in the MFF, combined with significant and uncoordinated cuts in national defence budgets as a result of the COVID-19 crisis; stresses the need for Member States to allocate the necessary financial resources at national level in order to give the Union the ability to operate as a global actor for peace; shares the assessment of the European Court of Auditors that ‘the EU Member States are far from having the military capabilities they need to match the EU military level of ambition’;

Amendment

34. Warns of the danger of a lack of ambition to fund European defence initiatives in the MFF, combined with significant and uncoordinated cuts in national defence budgets as a result of the COVID-19 crisis; stresses the need for Member States to allocate the necessary financial resources at national level in order to give the Union the ability to operate as a global actor for peace; in this vein, shares the assessment of the European Court of Auditors that ‘the EU Member States are far from having the military capabilities they need to match the EU military level of ambition’;

Or. en

Amendment 385

Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 35

Motion for a resolution

35. Recalls that while the common European defence projects and initiatives are instrumental in addressing the shortfalls in the areas of defence-related R&D, pooling resources and co-ordinating efforts, the bulk of the defence assets used for CSDP missions continue to be produced by the Member States and paid for by national defence budgets;

Amendment

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 386

Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 35

Motion for a resolution

35. Recalls that while the common European defence projects and initiatives are instrumental in addressing the shortfalls in the areas of defence-related R&D, pooling resources and co-ordinating efforts, the bulk of the defence assets used for CSDP missions continue to be produced by the Member States and paid for by national defence budgets;

Amendment

35. Recalls that while the European defence initiatives and common projects are instrumental in addressing the shortfalls in the areas of defence-related R&D, pooling resources and co-ordinating efforts, the bulk of the defence assets used for CSDP missions continue to be produced by the Member States and paid for by national defence budgets;

Or. en

Amendment 387

Hannah Neumann

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 35

Motion for a resolution

35. Recalls that while the common European defence projects and initiatives are instrumental in addressing the shortfalls in the areas of defence-related R&D, pooling resources and co-ordinating efforts, the bulk of the defence assets used for CSDP missions continue to be produced by the Member States and paid for by national defence budgets;

Amendment

35. Recalls that while the common European defence projects and initiatives are instrumental in addressing some shortfalls in the areas of defence-related R&D, pooling resources and co-ordinating efforts, the defence assets used for CSDP missions continue to be generated by the Member States and paid for by national defence budgets;

Or. en

Amendment 388

Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 36

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

36. Calls on the Member States to take responsibility for their decisions to deploy civilian and military missions by providing the Union with the necessary personnel and capabilities to achieve the objectives on which they have unanimously agreed, and thus deliver on our shared aspirations; deleted

Or. en

Amendment 389

Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 36

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

36. Calls on the Member States to take responsibility for their decisions to deploy civilian and military missions by providing the Union with the necessary personnel and capabilities to achieve the objectives on which they have unanimously agreed, and thus deliver on our shared aspirations; deleted

Or. en

Amendment 390

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 36

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

36. Calls on the Member States to take responsibility for their decisions to deploy 36. Urges Member States to follow their formal engagement at Council level civilian and military missions by providing the Union with the necessary personnel and capabilities to achieve the objectives on which they have unanimously agreed, and thus deliver on our shared aspirations; and take their responsibility for their decisions in the Council to deploy civilian and military missions by providing the Union with the necessary personnel and capabilities to achieve the objectives on which they have unanimously agreed, and thus deliver on their engagement towards a more secured European Union;

Or. en

Amendment 391

Javier Nart, Petras Auštrevičius, Michal Šimečka, Klemen Grošelj

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 36 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

36a. Highlights the value of international participation in CSDP missions and operations as a reinforcement to European capabilities and calls for a strengthened implementation of existing Framework Participation Agreements encouraging the collective nature of peace and security contributions;

Or. en

Amendment 392

Sven Mikser, Claudiu Manda, Attila Ara-Kovács, Isabel Santos, Juozas Olekas, Nikos Androulakis, Nils Ušakovs, Javi López, Tonino Picula, Costas Mavrides, Demetris Papadakis, Nacho Sánchez Amor

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 36 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

36a. Notes the important work conducted by EU SatCen and underlines that the Union must have adequate resources in the fields of space imagery and intelligence-gathering, stresses that EU SatCen should benefit from structural Union funding to be able to maintain its contributions to the Union's actions, notably in order to provide high-resolution satellite imaging in support of CSDP missions and operations;

Or. en

Amendment 393

Hannah Neumann

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 37

Motion for a resolution

37. Is alarmed at the potential erosion of the global non-proliferation and disarmament efforts; fears that withdrawal from, or the non-extension of, major arms control treaties would seriously damage the international arms control regimes that have provided decades of stability, and would undermine relationships between nuclear-armed states; underlines the urgent need to restore cross-border trust;

Amendment

37. Is alarmed at the potential erosion of the global non-proliferation and disarmament efforts; fears that withdrawal from, or the non-extension of, major arms control treaties would seriously damage the international arms control regimes that have provided decades of stability, and would undermine relationships between nuclear-armed states, and directly threaten European security in particular as regards absence of norms regulating and reducing tactical and short and middle range nuclear weapons; underlines the urgent need to restore cross-border trust;

Or. en

Amendment 394

Fabio Massimo Castaldo

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 37

Motion for a resolution

37. Is alarmed at the potential erosion

Amendment

37. Is alarmed at the current threats at

of the global non-proliferation and disarmament efforts; fears that withdrawal from, or the non-extension of, major arms control treaties would seriously damage the international arms control regimes that have provided decades of stability, and would undermine relationships between nuclear-armed states; underlines the urgent need to restore cross-border trust;

the global non-proliferation and disarmament regime and at the growing build-up and modernisation of nuclear warheads and launching systems by several countries; fears that withdrawal from, or the non-extension of, major arms control treaties would seriously damage the international arms control regimes that have provided decades of stability, and would undermine relationships between nuclear-armed states; underlines the urgent need to restore cross-border trust;

Or. en

Amendment 395

Klemen Grošelj, Javier Nart, Nathalie Loiseau, Urmas Paet, Petras Auštrevičius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 37

Motion for a resolution

37. Is alarmed at the potential erosion of the global non-proliferation and disarmament efforts; fears that withdrawal from, or the non-extension of, major arms control treaties would seriously damage the international arms control regimes that have provided decades of stability, and would undermine relationships between nuclear-armed states; underlines the urgent need to restore cross-border trust;

Amendment

37. Is alarmed at the current and potential further erosion of the global non-proliferation and disarmament efforts; fears that withdrawal from, or the non-extension of, major arms control treaties would seriously damage the international arms control regimes that have provided decades of stability, and would undermine relationships between nuclear-armed states, leading to new regional and global nuclear arms races; underlines the urgent need to restore cross-border trust;

Or. en

Amendment 396

Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 37

Motion for a resolution

37. Is alarmed at the potential erosion of the global non-proliferation and disarmament efforts; fears that withdrawal from, or the non-extension of, major arms control treaties would seriously damage the international arms control regimes that have provided decades of stability, and would undermine relationships between nuclear-armed states; underlines the urgent need to restore cross-border trust;

Amendment

37. Is alarmed at the potential erosion of the global non-proliferation and disarmament architecture; fears that non-compliance with, or the non-extension of, major arms control treaties would seriously damage the international arms control regimes that have provided decades of stability, and would undermine relationships between nuclear-armed states; underlines the urgent need to restore cross-border trust;

Or. en

Amendment 397
Fabio Massimo Castaldo

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 37 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

37a. Notes with concern the normalization of a dangerous rhetoric concerning the utility of nuclear weapons; reaffirms that international peace and security are strengthened in a world free from the existence or proliferation of nuclear weapons nuclear and that disarmament means not only a reduction in the number of active warheads, but also a reduction in the military and political role assigned to this type of weapons;

Or. en

Amendment 398
Hannah Neumann
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 38

Motion for a resolution

38. Reaffirms its full support for the EU and its Member States' commitment to the NPT as the cornerstone of the nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament regime; reiterates its calls for the adoption of concrete and effective measures during the 10th NPT Review Conference that would be a key element in preserving strategic stability and containing a new arms race;

Amendment

38. Reaffirms its full support for the EU and its Member States' commitment to the NPT as the cornerstone of the nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament regime; reiterates its calls for a strong EU Common Position ahead of the conference demanding the adoption of concrete and effective measures during the 10th NPT Review Conference that would be a key element in preserving strategic stability and containing a new arms race;

Or. en

Amendment 399
Dragoş Tudorache

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 38

Motion for a resolution

38. Reaffirms its full support for the EU and its Member States' commitment to the NPT as the cornerstone of the nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament regime; reiterates its calls for the adoption of concrete and effective measures during the 10th NPT Review Conference that would be a key element in preserving strategic stability and containing a new arms race;

Amendment

38. Reaffirms its full support for the EU and its Member States' commitment to the NPT as the cornerstone of the nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament regime; reiterates its calls for the adoption of concrete and effective measures during the 10th NPT Review Conference that would be a key element in preserving strategic stability and avoiding a new arms race;

Or. en

Amendment 400
Arnaud Danjean

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 39

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil;

Or. en

Amendment 401
Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 39

Motion for a resolution

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

Amendment

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

Or. bg

Amendment 402

Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 39

Motion for a resolution

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

Amendment

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty, which the Parliament deplores; fears that the collapse of the Treaty, for which Russia bears primary responsibility, might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

Or. en

Amendment 403

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 39

Motion for a resolution

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of

Amendment

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race between the US and the Russian Federation and its potential consequences for Europe; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

Or. en

Amendment 404
Emmanuel Maurel

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 39

Motion for a resolution

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

Amendment

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

Or. fr

Amendment 405
Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 39

Motion for a resolution

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US and the Russian Federation following Russia's persistent failure to comply with the Treaty; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

Amendment

39. Reiterates its deep regret at the withdrawal from the INF Treaty by the US, who used Russia's violations of the treaty as an excuse to kill it instead of engaging in dialogue towards peace; fears that the collapse of the Treaty might lead to the escalation of tensions and heightened nuclear and military threats and risks, while jeopardising the future of arms control regimes; underlines that it is strongly opposed to a new arms race and re-militarisation on European soil; urges the Council and the VP/HR to launch an EU-led initiative with a view to pushing for the conversion of the INF Treaty into a multilateral Treaty involving all nuclear states;

Or. en

Amendment 406
Hannah Neumann
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 39 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

39a. Recalls that effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes are a cornerstone of global and European security and stability; calls on all Member States to follow the example of Austria, Malta and Ireland and 81 other states and sign the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons (TPNW);

Or. en

Amendment 407

Bart Groothuis, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 40

Motion for a resolution

40. Exhorts the US and the Russian Federation to make further progress in negotiations on prolonging the New START Treaty, which is due to expire in February 2021; believes that an extension of the Treaty would give both signatories additional time to pursue negotiations with a view to agreeing on a new arms control instrument; calls for the involvement of other states;

Amendment

40. Exhorts the US and the Russian Federation to make further progress in negotiations on prolonging the New START Treaty, which is due to expire in February 2021; believes that an extension of the Treaty would give both signatories additional time to pursue negotiations with a view to agreeing on a new arms control instrument; Calls for the immediate involvement of other states, especially China, in any existing (such as NEW START, INF and the Open Skies Treaty) or in future negotiations on nuclear arms control instruments;

Or. en

Amendment 408

Alexandr Vondra, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 40

Motion for a resolution

40. Exhorts the US and the Russian Federation to make further progress in negotiations on prolonging the New START Treaty, which is due to expire in February 2021; believes that an extension of the Treaty would give both signatories additional time to pursue negotiations with a view to agreeing on a new arms control instrument; calls for the involvement of other states;

Amendment

40. Exhorts the US and the Russian Federation to make further progress in negotiations on prolonging the New START Treaty, which is due to expire in February 2021; believes that an extension of the Treaty would give both signatories additional time to pursue negotiations with a view to agreeing on a new arms control instrument; welcomes the involvement of other states if and when requested to serve in a supporting role to the extension of the Treaty;

Or. en

Amendment 409

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 40

Motion for a resolution

40. Exhorts the US and the Russian Federation to make further progress in negotiations on prolonging the New START Treaty, which is due to expire in February 2021; believes that an extension of the Treaty would give both signatories additional time to pursue negotiations with a view to agreeing on a new arms control instrument; calls for the involvement of other states;

Amendment

40. Exhorts the US and the Russian Federation to make further progress in negotiations on prolonging the New START Treaty, which is due to expire in February 2021; believes that an extension of the Treaty would give both signatories additional time to pursue negotiations with a view to agreeing on a new arms control instrument;

Or. en

Amendment 410

Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 40

Motion for a resolution

40. Exhorts the US and the Russian Federation to make further progress in negotiations on prolonging the New START Treaty, which is due to expire in February 2021; believes that an extension of the Treaty would give both signatories additional time to pursue negotiations with a view to agreeing on a new arms control instrument; calls for the involvement of other states;

Amendment

40. Encourages the US and the Russian Federation to make further progress in negotiations on prolonging the New START Treaty, which is due to expire in February 2021; believes that an extension of the Treaty would give both signatories additional time to pursue negotiations with a view to agreeing on a new arms control instrument;

Or. en

Amendment 411
Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 41

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

41. Expresses its deep regret at the decision taken by the US to withdraw from the Open Skies Treaty, a major arms control instrument which has contributed to trust-building and to providing smaller states with a valuable capability to monitor and verify the military activities of their neighbours; calls on the remaining signatories to continue implementing the Treaty, while ensuring that it remains functional and useful;

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 412
Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Juozas Olekas, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 41

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

41. Expresses its deep regret at the decision taken by the US to withdraw from the Open Skies Treaty, a major arms control instrument which has contributed to trust-building and to providing smaller states with a valuable capability to monitor and verify the military activities of their neighbours; calls on the remaining signatories to continue implementing the Treaty, while ensuring that it remains functional and useful;

41. Deplores Russia's selective implementation of its obligations under the Open Skies Treaty; expresses its deep regret at the decision taken by the US to withdraw from the Treaty, a major arms control instrument which has contributed to trust-building and to providing smaller states with a valuable capability to monitor and verify the military activities of their neighbours; calls on the remaining signatories to continue implementing the Treaty, while ensuring that it remains functional and useful;

Or. en

Amendment 413

Bart Groothuis, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Nathalie Loiseau

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 41

Motion for a resolution

41. Expresses its deep regret at the decision taken by the US to withdraw from the Open Skies Treaty, a major arms control instrument which has contributed to trust-building and to providing smaller states with a valuable capability to monitor and verify the military activities of their neighbours; calls on the remaining signatories to continue implementing the Treaty, while ensuring that it remains functional and useful;

Amendment

41. Expresses its deep regret at the decision taken by the US to withdraw from the Open Skies Treaty, a major arms control instrument which has contributed to trust-building and to providing smaller states with a valuable capability to monitor and verify the military activities of their neighbours; calls on the remaining signatories to continue implementing the Treaty, while ensuring that it remains functional and useful; calls on the US to repeal its decision to withdraw from the Open Skies Treaty;

Or. en

Amendment 414

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 41

Motion for a resolution

41. Expresses its deep regret at the decision taken by the US to withdraw from the Open Skies Treaty, a major arms control instrument which has contributed to trust-building and to providing smaller states with a valuable capability to monitor and verify the military activities of their neighbours; calls on the remaining signatories to continue implementing the Treaty, while ensuring that it remains functional and useful;

Amendment

41. Expresses its deep regret at the decision taken by the US to withdraw from the Open Skies Treaty due to Russia's non-compliance and continued provocations, undermining a major arms control instrument which has contributed to trust-building and to providing smaller states with a valuable capability to monitor and verify the military activities of their neighbours; calls on the remaining signatories to continue implementing the Treaty, while ensuring that it remains functional and useful;

Or. en

Amendment 415

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 42

Motion for a resolution

42. Welcomes the EU's financial contribution to the projects and activities of the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW); welcomes the adoption by the Council of a horizontal sanctions regime to address the growing use and proliferation of chemical weapons; calls for the EU to pursue its efforts to counter the proliferation and use of chemical weapons and to support the global prohibition of chemical weapons as laid down by the Chemical Weapons Convention (CWC);

Amendment

42. Welcomes the EU's financial contribution to the projects and activities of the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW); welcomes the adoption by the Council of a horizontal sanctions regime to address the growing use and proliferation of chemical weapons; condemns the recent use of Chemical Weapons by Syria, North Korea, Russia and terrorist organizations and maintains the view that the lack of accountability for such incidents undermine the international norm against chemical weapons and requires Member States to consider how best to respond to the use of chemical weapons, including how future use could be deterred, and whether Member States are adequately protected and how to strengthen the OPCW to ensure speedy and accurate attribution and effective response mechanisms. calls for the EU to pursue its efforts to counter the proliferation and use of chemical weapons and to support the global prohibition of chemical weapons as laid down by the Chemical Weapons Convention (CWC);

Or. en

Amendment 416

Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 42

Motion for a resolution

42. Welcomes the EU's financial contribution to the projects and activities of the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW); welcomes the adoption by the Council of a horizontal sanctions regime to address the growing use and proliferation of chemical weapons; calls for the EU to pursue its efforts to counter the proliferation and use of chemical weapons and to support the global prohibition of chemical weapons as laid down by the Chemical Weapons Convention (CWC);

Amendment

42. Welcomes the EU's financial contribution to the projects and activities of the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW); expresses deep concern at the recent claims by veteran OPCW inspectors that their probe into the April 2018 alleged chemical attack in Douma, Syria was censored and manipulated as a direct result of US government pressure; calls on the UN and the OPCW to let the whistleblowers air their concerns and present the evidence that was suppressed; calls for the EU to pursue its efforts to counter the proliferation and use of chemical weapons and to support the global prohibition of chemical weapons as laid down by the Chemical Weapons Convention (CWC);

Or. en

Amendment 417

Rasa Juknevičienė, Miriam Lexmann, Riho Terras, Juozas Olekas, Andrius Kubilius

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 42

Motion for a resolution

42. Welcomes the EU's financial contribution to the projects and activities of the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW); welcomes the adoption by the Council of a horizontal sanctions regime to address the growing use and proliferation of chemical weapons; calls for the EU to pursue its efforts to counter the proliferation and use of chemical weapons and to support the global prohibition of chemical weapons as laid down by the Chemical Weapons

Amendment

42. Welcomes the EU's financial contribution to the projects and activities of the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons(OPCW); welcomes the adoption by the Council of a horizontal sanctions regime to address the growing use and proliferation of chemical weapons; calls for the EU to pursue its efforts to counter the proliferation and use of chemical weapons and to support the global prohibition of chemical weapons as laid down by the Chemical Weapons

Convention (CWC);

Convention (CWC); calls the EU to take initiative to address the issue of impunity for the use of chemical weapons;

Or. en

Amendment 418

Mick Wallace, Clare Daly, Manu Pineda

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 43

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

43. Expresses grave concern at the attempted assassination of the prominent Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny using a banned nerve agent which, under the Chemical Weapons Convention, is considered as use of a chemical weapon and, as such, is a serious violation of international norms; calls on the Council to use all instruments, including sanctions, at the EU's disposal to hold accountable all those responsible for the poisoning;

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 419

Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 43

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

43. Expresses grave concern at the attempted assassination of the prominent Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny using a banned nerve agent which, under the Chemical Weapons Convention, is considered as use of a chemical weapon and, as such, is a serious violation of international norms; calls on the Council to

43. Expresses grave concern at the attempted assassination of the prominent Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny using a banned nerve agent which, under the Chemical Weapons Convention, is considered as use of a chemical weapon and, as such, is a serious violation of international norms; calls for an

use all instruments, including sanctions, at the EU's disposal to hold accountable all those responsible for the poisoning; independent international investigation of the events; calls on the Council to use all instruments, including sanctions, at the EU's disposal to hold accountable all those responsible for the poisoning;

Or. bg

Amendment 420

Željana Zovko

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 43

Motion for a resolution

43. Expresses grave concern at the attempted assassination of the prominent Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny using a banned nerve agent which, under the Chemical Weapons Convention, is considered as use of a chemical weapon and, as such, is a serious violation of international norms; calls on the Council to use all instruments, including sanctions, at the EU's disposal to hold accountable all those responsible for the poisoning;

Amendment

43. Expresses grave concern at the attempted assassination of the prominent Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny using a banned nerve agent which, under the Chemical Weapons Convention, is considered as use of a chemical weapon and, as such, is a serious violation of international norms; welcomes the Council's decision to impose sanctions to hold accountable all those responsible for the poisoning;

Or. en

Amendment 421

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 43

Motion for a resolution

43. Expresses grave concern at the attempted assassination of the prominent Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny using a banned nerve agent which, under the Chemical Weapons Convention, is

Amendment

43. Expresses grave concern at the attempted assassination of the prominent Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny using a banned nerve agent which, under the Chemical Weapons Convention, is considered as use of a chemical weapon and, as such, is a serious violation of international norms; calls on the Council to use all instruments, including sanctions, at the EU's disposal to hold accountable all those responsible for the poisoning;

considered as use of a chemical weapon and, as such, is a serious violation of international norms; welcomes the Council decision to enact sanctions against individuals that are considered to be responsible for the poisoning;

Or. en

Amendment 422 Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 43

Motion for a resolution

43. Expresses grave concern at the attempted assassination of the prominent Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny using a banned nerve agent which, under the Chemical Weapons Convention, is considered as use of a chemical weapon and, as such, is a serious violation of international norms; calls on the Council to use all instruments, including sanctions, at the EU's disposal to hold accountable all those responsible for the poisoning;

Amendment

43. Deplores the attempted assassination of the prominent Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny using a banned nerve agent which, under the Chemical Weapons Convention, is considered as use of a chemical weapon and, as such, is a serious violation of international norms; calls on the Council to use all instruments, including sanctions, at the EU's disposal to hold accountable all those responsible for the poisoning;

Or. en

Amendment 423 Bart Groothuis, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 44

Motion for a resolution

44. Asks the VP/HR to bring forward proposals to strengthen the available expertise in non-proliferation and arms control in the EU and to ensure that the EU plays a strong and constructive role in developing and reinforcing the global

Amendment

44. Asks the VP/HR to bring forward proposals to strengthen the available expertise in non-proliferation and arms control in the EU and to ensure that the EU plays a strong and constructive role in developing and reinforcing the global rules-based non-proliferation efforts and arms control and disarmament architecture; welcomes the appointment of a new Special Envoy for Disarmament and Non-Proliferation in this respect;

rules-based non-proliferation efforts and arms control and disarmament architecture; welcomes the appointment of a new Special Envoy for Disarmament and Non-Proliferation in this respect; realises that new international agreements in the field of arms control are urgently needed; states that in the context of nuclear deterrence, the development of hypersonic missiles can undermine the principles of mutually assured destruction and therefore calls for a worldwide arms control treaty on the use, range, speed, doctrine, inspection on nuclear payloads, and placement near coastlines of hypersonic weapon systems, initiated by the EU;

Or. en

Amendment 424 Jérôme Rivière

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 45

Motion for a resolution

45. Reiterates its full commitment to the preservation of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes as a cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; recalls its commitment to pursuing policies designed to move forward the reduction and elimination of all nuclear arsenals and to achieve a world without nuclear weapons;

Amendment

45. Reiterates its full commitment to the preservation of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes as a cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; recalls its commitment to pursuing policies designed to move forward the reduction and elimination of all nuclear arsenals and to achieve a world without nuclear weapons; recalls, however, that a number of countries, in particular France, are keen to keep their nuclear deterrent, which is the cornerstone of their defence strategy;

Or. fr

Amendment 425
David McAllister

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 45

Motion for a resolution

45. Reiterates its full commitment to the preservation of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes as a cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; recalls its commitment to pursuing policies designed to move forward the reduction and elimination of all nuclear arsenals and to achieve a world without nuclear weapons;

Amendment

45. Reiterates its full commitment to the preservation of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes, where international values and rule-of-law have been broken, as a cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; recalls its commitment to pursuing policies designed to move forward the reduction and elimination of all nuclear arsenals and to achieve a world without nuclear weapons;

Or. en

Amendment 426
Bart Groothuis, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 45

Motion for a resolution

45. Reiterates its full commitment to the preservation of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes as a cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; recalls its commitment to pursuing policies designed to move forward the reduction and elimination of all nuclear arsenals and to achieve a world without nuclear weapons;

Amendment

45. Reiterates its full commitment to the preservation of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes as a cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; recalls its commitment to pursuing policies designed to move forward the reduction of all nuclear arsenals;

Amendment 427

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Bart Groothuis

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 45

Motion for a resolution

45. Reiterates its full commitment to the preservation of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes as a cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; recalls its commitment to pursuing policies designed to move forward the reduction and elimination of all nuclear arsenals and to achieve a world without nuclear weapons;

Amendment

45. Expresses its deep concerns regarding the erosion of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes, which is the cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; urges the VP-HR to take action in order to strengthen policies designed to move forward the reduction and elimination of all nuclear arsenals and to achieve a world without nuclear weapons;

Amendment 428

Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 45

Motion for a resolution

45. Reiterates its full commitment to the preservation of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes as a cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; recalls its commitment to pursuing policies designed to move forward the reduction and elimination of all nuclear arsenals and

Amendment

45. Reiterates its full commitment to the preservation of effective international arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation regimes as a cornerstone of global and European security; stresses its full support to the work of the UNODA and to the UN Agenda for Disarmament; recalls its commitment to pursuing policies designed to move forward the reduction and elimination of nuclear arsenals by

to achieve a world without nuclear weapons;

aggressive and competing regimes;

Or. en

Amendment 429
Arnaud Danjean

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 430
Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence

46. Notes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position;

area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Or. en

Amendment 431

Hannah Neumann

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position 944 on arms exports; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence, transparency and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies as well as for strengthening of public oversight; calls on Member States to fully comply with the eight criteria of Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism and EU-level monitoring to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position which needs to become enforceable; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications; believes that the growing importance of the EU level in arms production, the recent Council conclusions on convergence in arms exports and the establishment of the European Peace Facility (EPF) should be complemented by a mechanism for EU-level monitoring and control based on full compliance with the eight criteria;

Or. en

Amendment 432

Nikos Androulakis, Demetris Papadakis, Costas Mavrides

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position, and strictly implement criterion 4 on regional stability and halt any export of military equipment that could be used against other EU Member States; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Or. en

Amendment 433

Georgios Kyrtos, Arnaud Danjean, Vangelis Meimarakis, Nikos Androulakis, Costas Mavrides

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls on Member States to abandon arms exports programs to countries threatening to use military means against EU Member States; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Or. en

Amendment 434
Emmanuel Maurel

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position;

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports;

welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Or. fr

Amendment 435

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; welcomes efforts made to increase transparency of parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports while respecting national security limitations and intellectual property rights; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Or. en

Amendment 436

Bart Groothuis, Klemen Grošelj, Nathalie Loiseau

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Or. en

Amendment 437

Željana Zovko

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Amendment 438
David McAllister

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies to enhance cooperation and the effectiveness of the European defence industry; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Amendment 439
Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Urmas Paet

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 46

Motion for a resolution

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and

Amendment

46. Welcomes the Council conclusions on the review of the Common Position; is of the firm view that, as the EU is increasingly ambitious in the defence area, there is a need for greater convergence and consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to fully comply with the Common Position; calls for a sanctions mechanism to be put in place against Member States that do not comply with the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications; consistency in the Member States' arms export policies; calls on Member States to bridge their different interpretations of the Common Position; welcomes the efforts made to increase the transparency and the public and parliamentary scrutiny of arms exports; calls for joint efforts to improve risk assessments, end-user checks and post-shipment verifications;

Or. en

Amendment 440

Costas Mavrides, Nikos Androulakis, Demetris Papadakis

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 46 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

46a. Urges the Member States to comply with the EU Code of Conduct on Arms Exports; reiterates the need for the strict application by all Member States of the rules laid down in Council Common Position 2008/944/CFSP of 8 December 2008 on arms exports; recalls that Member States committed to strong national positions regarding their arms export policy to Turkey on the basis of the provisions of Common Position 2008/944/CFSP, including the strict application of criterion 4 on regional stability; reiterates its calls on the VP / HR, for as long as Turkey continues with its current illegal, unilateral actions in the Eastern Mediterranean that run counter to the sovereignty of any EU Member State (notably Greece and Cyprus) and international law, and does not engage in dialogue based on international law, to introduce an initiative in the Council for all EU Member States to halt arms export for all types of military equipment, including weapons, weapons for dual-use goods and know-how, to Turkey in accordance with the Common Position;

Or. en

Amendment 441

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 47

Motion for a resolution

47. Welcomes the EU's activities aimed at supporting the universalisation of the Arms Trade Treaty, and calls on all the major arms-exporting countries to sign and ratify it as soon as possible;

Amendment

47. Welcomes the EU's activities aimed at supporting the universalisation of the Arms Trade Treaty, and encourages all the major arms-exporting countries to consider signing and ratifying it as soon as possible;

Or. en

Amendment 442

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki, Assita Kanko

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 48

Motion for a resolution

48. Calls for the EU to take the lead in global efforts to set up a comprehensive regulatory framework for the development and use of AI-enabled weapons; calls on the VP/HR, the Member States and the European Council to adopt a joint position on autonomous weapons systems that ensures meaningful human control over the critical functions of weapons systems; insists on the start of international negotiations on a legally binding instrument that would prohibit fully

Amendment

48. Calls for the EU to take the lead in global efforts to set up a comprehensive regulatory framework for the development and use of AI-enabled weapons; calls on the VP/HR, the Member States and the European Council to adopt a joint position on autonomous weapons systems that ensures meaningful human control over the critical functions of weapons systems;

autonomous weapons;

Or. en

Amendment 443

Hannah Neumann

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 48

Motion for a resolution

48. Calls for the EU to take the lead in global efforts to set up a comprehensive regulatory framework for the development and use of AI-enabled weapons; calls on the VP/HR, the Member States and the European Council to adopt a joint position on autonomous weapons systems that ensures meaningful human control over the critical functions of weapons systems; insists on the start of international negotiations on a legally binding instrument that would prohibit fully autonomous weapons;

Amendment

48. Calls for the EU to take the lead in global efforts to set up a comprehensive regulatory framework to ensure meaningful human control over the critical functions of selecting and attacking targets in the development and use of increasingly autonomous weapons; calls on the VP/HR, the Member States and the Council to adopt a joint position on lethal autonomous weapons systems; insists on the start of international negotiations on a legally binding instrument that would prohibit lethal autonomous weapons without meaningful human control;

Or. en

Amendment 444

Nathalie Loiseau, Christophe Grudler, Klemen Grošelj, Petras Auštrevičius, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Bart Groothuis

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 48

Motion for a resolution

48. Calls for the EU to take the lead in global efforts to set up a comprehensive regulatory framework for the development and use of AI-enabled weapons; calls on the VP/HR, the Member States and the

Amendment

48. Calls for the EU to take the lead in global efforts to set up a comprehensive regulatory framework for the development and use of AI-enabled weapons; calls on the VP/HR, the Member States and the European Council to adopt a joint position on autonomous weapons systems that ensures meaningful human control over the critical functions of weapons systems; insists on the start of international negotiations on a legally binding instrument that would prohibit fully autonomous weapons;

European Council to adopt a joint position on autonomous weapons systems that ensures meaningful human control over the critical functions of weapons systems; insists on the start of international negotiations on a common definition and a framework on the use of autonomous weapons;

Or. en

Amendment 445
Traian Băsescu

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 48 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

48a. Notes that artificial intelligence is among the new technologies that substantially alter the concept of defence; calls on the EU to explore the potential and interoperability of artificial intelligence-based defence systems and applications, to be ready to respond to the development and use of these technologies worldwide, and to propose, together with its partners and especially NATO, ethical measures and principles for their joint use; also considers that special attention must be paid to the common rules and standards that should be imposed on the European defence industry as regards the development of military capabilities that harness artificial intelligence;

Or. ro

Amendment 446
Klemen Grošelj, Javier Nart, Urmas Paet, Petras Auštrevičius

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 48 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

48a. Calls on the EU to take the lead in global efforts to set up a comprehensive and effective global arms control system for missile and unmanned combat vehicle technology proliferation;

Or. en

Amendment 447
Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 49

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

49. Underlines the need for the European Parliament to address all defence matters in a consistent manner; calls for the mandate of the Subcommittee on Security and Defence to be reassessed in view of the growing number of defence initiatives at the EU level, and of the creation of the Commission's DG DEFIS;

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 448
Fabio Massimo Castaldo

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 49

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

49. Underlines the need for the European Parliament to address all defence matters in a consistent manner; calls for the mandate of the Subcommittee on Security and Defence to be reassessed in view of the growing number of defence initiatives at the EU level, and of the creation of the Commission's DG DEFIS;

49. Underlines the need for the European Parliament to address all defence matters in a consistent manner; calls for the mandate of the Subcommittee on Security and Defence to be reassessed and expanded in view of the growing number of defence initiatives at the EU level, and of the creation of the Commission's DG

DEFIS;

Or. en

Amendment 449

Charlie Weimers

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 50

Motion for a resolution

50. Welcomes the regular exchanges of views with the VP/HR on CSDP issues and calls on the VP/HR to ensure that the views of the European Parliament are duly taken into consideration; stresses the need to ensure regular briefings from EU Special Representatives, Special Envoys, and mission and operation commanders; considers that Parliament should be consulted in advance about strategic planning for CSDP missions, changes to their mandates and plans to bring them to an end; calls for the comprehensive implementation of Article 36 TEU;

Amendment

50. Welcomes the regular exchanges of views with the VP/HR on CSDP issues; welcomes regular briefings from EU Special Representatives, Special Envoys, and mission and operation commanders;

Or. en

Amendment 450

Alexandr Vondra, Anna Fotyga, Witold Jan Waszczykowski, Mazaly Aguilar, Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 50

Motion for a resolution

50. Welcomes the regular exchanges of views with the VP/HR on CSDP issues and calls on the VP/HR to ensure that the views of the European Parliament are duly taken into consideration; stresses the need to ensure regular briefings from EU Special Representatives, Special Envoys, and

Amendment

50. Welcomes the regular exchanges of views with the VP/HR on CSDP issues and calls on the VP/HR to ensure that the views of the European Parliament are duly taken into consideration; stresses the need to ensure regular briefings from EU Special Representatives, Special Envoys, and mission and operation commanders;

considers that Parliament should be consulted in advance about strategic planning for CSDP missions, changes to their mandates and plans to bring them to an end; calls for the comprehensive implementation of Article 36 TEU;

mission and operation commanders;
prioritises that the formal defining of Strategic Autonomy take place as soon as possible so that Parliament can be consulted in how best to contribute to strategic planning for CSDP missions, changes to their mandates and plans to bring them to an end; calls for the comprehensive implementation of Article 36 TEU;

Or. en

Amendment 451
Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 52

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

52. Reiterates the importance of improving the tools available to civil society in order to ensure its meaningful involvement in the formulation of defence-related policy and its effective oversight;

deleted

Or. bg

Amendment 452
Arnaud Danjean

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 52

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

52. Reiterates the importance of improving the tools available to civil society in order to ensure its meaningful involvement in the formulation of defence-related policy and its effective oversight;

deleted

Amendment 453

Klemen Grošelj, Urmas Paet, Petras Auštrevičius

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 52

Motion for a resolution

52. Reiterates the importance of improving the tools available to civil society in order to ensure its meaningful involvement in the formulation of defence-related policy and its effective oversight;

Amendment

52. Reiterates the importance of improving the tools available to civil society in order to ensure its meaningful and substantial involvement in the formulation of defence-related policy and its effective oversight;

Amendment 454

Emmanuel Maurel

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 53

Motion for a resolution

53. Instructs its President to forward this resolution to the European Council, the Council, the Commission, the Vice-President of the Commission / High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, the Secretary-General of the United Nations, the Secretary-General of NATO, the EU agencies in the security and defence fields, and the national parliaments of the Member States.

Amendment

53. Instructs its President to forward this resolution to the European Council, the Council, the Commission, the Vice-President of the Commission / High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, the Secretary-General of the United Nations, the EU agencies in the security and defence fields, and the national parliaments of the Member States.