The Syrian Coalition condemns the terrorist bombing that took place in the city of Istanbul on Tuesday morning.

The Syrian Coalition extends the most sincere condolences to the families of the victims and wishes a speedy recovery for the wounded.

Having been subjected to the terrorism of the Assad regime and terrorist groups associated with it on daily basis for years, the Syrian people understand more than anybody what the victims of terrorism are going through. The Coalition reiterates that it stands with Turkey in the fight against terrorist acts targeting its security and stability.
