Press Statement

“Original in Arabic”

Hisham Marwa

Vice President of the Syrian Coalition

June 12, 2015

The Syrian Coalition renews commitment to the principles and aspirations of the Syrian revolution and stresses the priority of a political solution that ensures achieving those aspirations. The departure of Assad and holding perpetrators of war crimes to account are crucial to the success of any political solution.

The Syrian Coalition reaffirms its adherence to the revolution’s principles and goals of making a transition to a civilian pluralist democratic state that is based on the principle of citizenship, recognizes equal rights of all components of the Syrian society, and respects human rights and all other international charters and conventions.
