All Muslims mark the end of holy Ramadan today; but Syrians have spent this month facing the cruelty of a tyrannical regime.

The Syrian Coalition wishes all people a happy and peaceful Eid Al Fitr. The Syrian Coalition would like to pay tribute to the heroes of Syria who are fighting a criminal regime, from the mothers of the fallen and the detained, to the refugees and the displaced.

The Syrian Coalition also renews its pledge to spare no effort in the pursuit of achieving the Syrian people's aspirations of justice, dignity, and freedom.

Throughout these holy days, we ask God to help the people of Syria and to guide us towards serving our people and country.
